THE SEASON,

BANQUET AND PIANO LAMPS,

Lest it may be thought that our regular line are not receiving proper attention we will say that by doubling our force, as we have recently done, we are now in a better condition to take care of our trade than at any time in the past. We don't intend to let the coming season catch us with too many winter goods on hand, and with that object in view we are trying to reduce our very large stock of DRESS GOODS, WRAPS, BLANKETS, COMFORTS, WOOLLEN UNDER-WEAR, LEGGINS, and especially CARPETS RUGS, and ART SQUARES, in all of which we
